Joseph "Joe" Louis Tolone

JUL 4, 1923 - DEC 12, 2020

Joseph "Joe" Louis Tolone, 97, of North Syracuse, passed away December 12, 2020 at Loretto Health & Rehabilitation, where he was cared for by compassionate staff. Loving son of deceased parents, Mary Elizabeth (Metallo) and George B. Tolone, he was a proud U.S. Navy World War II veteran.

Joe was a doting husband to his wife of 73 years, Vivian (Mariani) Tolone, and loving father of Orrine (Walter) Kolodziej, Joann (David) Mondo, and Zoe (Steven) Sochor. He is survived by his grandchildren, Jennifer (Jake) Hafner, Nichole Bucci, Stephen Kolodziej and Sophia Acosta, as well as his great grandchildren, Emilia and Jacob Hafner and Jesse Acosta. He most certainly was met by his predeceased grandson, Zack Sochor.

Joe was predeceased by his eldest brother, Dominic Tolone, and three child siblings. He is survived by his brothers, Ralph Tolone, George (Phyllis) Tolone, and Gregory Tolone, as well as his sister, Teresa DeFranco, several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Always the jokester, Joe was funny, warm-hearted and a great cook. He was a selfless man who taught his family what love looks and sounds like, and aside from the love he had for his children and grandchildren, his deep, abiding love for his wife, Vivian, will sustain him throughout eternity.

There will be no public calling hours, but a brief service will stream live from THOMAS J. PIRRO JR. FUNERAL HOME at Noon, Thursday, December 17, 2020, please visit Joseph's tribute page at tjpfuneralhome.com.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to The American Legion <https://www.legion.org/donate> or the Loretto Foundation <https://www.lorettocny.org/foundation>.

Uncle Joe was a character. Loved when he and Aunt Vivian would come to Pittsburgh. He would sneak beers to me when I was a teenager. Had that magic trick with his finger. I never got tired of seeing it. Rest in Peace Uncle

Joe was one of kind and truly a good person. When he came to Connecticut, sitting around the kitchen table listening to his corny jokes and drinking Sneaky Pete was not to be missed! Our memories of him will remain in our hearts forever. Sending love and hugs to Vivian and the family, Tom and Bonnie Sochor

Joe and Vivian were my godparents and Orrine was my best friend growing up. We lived across the street from each other on Valentine Dr. He was the kindest, funniest man I knew back then. I always felt like one of the family. I'm saddened by his passing but happy to know that he was blessed with so many happy years.

Joe was an extraordinary human being. His kindness had no boundaries. He was a good son, husband, father and grandfather. My cousin Vivian and Joe were married seventy three years, and they never fell out of love! it sustained them throughout the trials of life. God bless you Joe. I know Heaven has a reserved seat for you ❤️
