Josephine (Izzo) Antelmi

NOV 11, 1917 - JAN 12, 2021

Josephine (Izzo) Antelmi, age 103, formerly of Syracuse, passed away on January 12, 2021 in Bay Village of Sarasota, FL. She was born in Syracuse, NY, daughter of the late Michael and Anna Izzo (Tortorelo) Antelmi.

Josephine was a lifelong communicant of St. Daniel's Church. She was employed by Julius Resnick Pocketbook Factory as a young woman. Josephine was a talented seamstress of drapery and clothing throughout her life, and a dedicated crocheter, well into her 90's. Her fine work was seen in many homes throughout CNY. Her prize-winning crocheted pieces could be seen at the NYS Fair, where she loved to visit every year until she was 100 years young. Her talents were limitless, and included upholstery, gardening, canning, cooking, and baking. Her handwritten recipes are family treasures. Josephine's kindness was truly felt by all of those who met her. She was a woman of grace and love and will be missed by so many.

She is predeceased by her husband of 55 years, Ribelle Antelmi; daughter, Angelina Joseph; sisters, Frances Ianuzzi and Mary Ventre; brothers, John, Joseph, Louis, Daniel, and Michael.

Josephine is survived by her daughter, Anna Marie Antelmi (Melvin Hanson); sons, Rocco Antelmi (Joan) of NC and Michael (Linda) of Florida; son-in-law, Gilbert Joseph (Angelina) of Florida, and a sister, Yolanda Savastano; six grandchildren, Christine, Gregory, Todd, Jessica, Rachel, and Kaitlin; two great grandchildren, Gabriella and Isabella, and many adoring nieces and nephews.

Josephine was lovingly cared for by her daughter Anna Marie for over 20 years before relocating to Sarasota, FL.

Her family would like to thank the staff at Bay Village of Sarasota for the loving care she received as a resident there.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:00 am on Tuesday, January 19, 2021 at St. Daniel's Church, 3004 Court St., Syracuse, NY. To attend the mass remotely, please visit stdaniel.com.

This women was one of the kindest souls I had ever met. She made every time we visited so special with her upbeat attitude. She was a very soft spoken women who made every encounter so memorable. If it was the first time you met her she never made you feel like a stranger. Although, I didn't know her for long she will always have a deep impact on my life and my whole family. We will miss you forever great grandma Josephine Antelmi! Sending all my love to those impacted by this great loss.-(great granddaughter) Gabriella Antelmi

To the Antelmi family;I grew up knowing Mrs. Antelmi in Lyncourt as a neighbor and a mother of my dear friend Mike. She was always warm, with a remarkable smile that made you feel welcomed and part of the family. She had so many talents as a seamstress and crocheting. She as many mothers in Lyncourt (our village) raised us and gave us the unconditional love that help nurture our adolescence. I am sure Mr. Antelmi and Angie are happy to have her by their sides once again. Antelmi family, I share your sorrow deeply and know Mrs. Antelmi is know sharing that warm inviting smile with the angels of God. Also, teaching some how to sew and crochet.Condolences with love,Steve and Patti Volza
