What a beautiful picture of Jeanette! She was such a good friend to me and always with a good listening heart and a big smile. We would share stories of bringing up our kids and how we were doing in de-cluttering our homes. We had long telephone calls and not enough luncheon dates. My love to Cos and the kids, I will really miss you, Jeanette but I know we will meet again...

Kathleen and I are deeply saddened to hear the news of Jeanette's passing. We've known Cos and Jeanette nearly 50 years, and last saw them for dinner in Skaneateles. We enjoyed catching up on our lives since the days of Syracuse Movie Lab. Jeanette was as enjoyable and rock steady a person as one could meet. She will be deeply missed. We wish strength and peace to Cos and family.

I just learned of Jeanette's passing a few minutes ago. Since the first day I met her, I kept thinking she represented every strength and kind heartedness I missed so much about my upbringing in Syracuse. Since then my wife Robin and I couldn't wait to spend as much time as possible with Jeanette and Cos during our summers. Dinners at Santangelo's was all about Jeanette's gift of sharing the love with her cooking and. She cared for us and we loved her for making us feel so welcome.
