Lauren.. I have some of the best memories of our younger years.. so many pictures.. so many stories I could tell. Even though I moved away, whenever we randomly saw each other and had conversations it was like we never lost touch. I will miss your beautiful smile and randomly hearing from you. My condolences to the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Lauren, I am so sorry to hear of your passing and my heart hurts for all of those mourning you at this time. You were a beautiful person and although we have lost touch over the years, I cherish our childhood memories. I am praying for comfort and strength for anyone reading this and for the baby girls to find strength through their pain. Rest In Peace girl, you will truly be missed.
