I remember John from the time he worked at the pharmacy at the Four Corners in B'ville. Later, we crossed paths when he was doing research in supermarkets and I was a sales rep calling on the same stores. Even later on, after some surgery we shared meals and even briefly a room at a rehab facility in Liverpool.I also admired the VW Bus he drove for years. John Guyder a genuinely nice guy. Condolences to his family.Jack Spring

I was only 12 when I meet John and his lovely Family Pam, Angie and Gina. He was the best he took us everywhere in his VW wagon bus. So many awesome memories. I'm glad he's back with his wife and they are dancing in Heaven. Will Miss you John pants. Love always Amber
