I must add, one of the first jobs I did for Mary was to redo the landscaping out on her front yard. There were yellow lilies planted there and she just did not like them. I pulled them out for her and I told her I would plant them in my yard and she was happy to hear that. When they bloom this year I will think of Mary. I've had them here probably three years. ❤️

I knew Mary for a brief time. Did some handyman work for her, did her carpets for her a few times. We had many a lovely chat, sitting out in the garage, standing at the kitchen counter, or sitting in the living room. She was a wonderful person to speak with, such vast knowledge and such a kind loving person. You will be missed, Mary! I'm so happy that I knew you. Rest in peace my friend. 🕊️🌸🕊️❤️
