I first worked for Gerry in 1970. He was my Supervisor until 1976 when I left Liberty to have my first child. When I was ready to go back to work full time I called him and within a few months he hired me back as a Claims Rep. in 1987. I worked for him until 1990 when I moved to Chicago. He and Marianne were at both of my weddings. He was a teacher and mentor to me. I remember the time he drove us to a company clambake on his bus. I admired and loved him. He was a wonderful man. My condolences to his family. Susan A. Mack Paduano Ulanosky.
