I knew Mary as the wife of my cousin Jim. We visited a few times years ago. I was trying to find her to visit this coming September on a trip to Seneca Falls. I am saddened that I missed seeing her. My sympathies to her children and grandchildren. She was a very fine woman.

Ted and Ellen and families, my heart is so heavy having read this. What a light we have lost. Mary was a force to be certain as you both know so well. She touched so many people in her life as did your dad. I will miss her as she was family! Love to you all Martha Lyons

Ed and Ellen, So sorry for your loss. We remember Mary fondly for not only her great baking, that Christmas stollen she sent us one year was devoured in minutes! ...but mostly for her love and devotion to her children and grandchildren, may she rest in peace. Tina and Brian Lantz

Another great mentor has passed. One of what some of us called the three Mary's who helped found Mom's House, Birthright, Perpetual Adoration and the Nazareth Marian Center. I thank God for the many holy conversations and grace-filled advice I received from Mary over the years. Much love to the family who will miss their treasure here but know she is accessible to us all now and she will surely continue her work for Mary and Jesus on our behalf in Heaven.

Over 30 years of bridge games leaves many fond memories. We started playing in a bridge club before she and Jim were married, we both lived in Endicott and I moved to Florida. Twice a month with such a fabulous person was something I will always remember. My deepest sympathy to her family. Joyce Allen Stedman, Tampa, Fl.

Mary was a loved parishioner of IHM but we shared her love at St. Rose. She was part of our rosary group and get togethers. We knew how to laugh, love and pray together. Over the past few years we have become close friends sharing our faith and life experiences. Mary has had a profound influence on all of us and will be deeply missed. Thank you Mary for sharing your love and wisdom with us. May you now enjoy your eternal peace. ❤️❤️❤️

I just found out that Mary passed. I am so sad to hear this as she was such a lovely woman. She helped prepare me for Confirmation and was a wonderful friend to my Mom, Shirley Keaty. I know she is missed.
