As a young mother living at Swiss Village Apts. in the 60s and 70s, Marlene became a great friend who brought much laughter to our morning coffee klatches. Her weekly visits were a fun time for my children as Marlene brought her children along. It was with much sorrow that my family moved out of state-but she and Mel made a trip to Maryland and visited with us. The Lord put Marlene in my life at the right time and I am forever grateful that He did. Rest in peace, dearest friend. We will meet again in glory and will laugh together (over coffee?) again in the presence of our Savior. darlene
