Mike was a special person who kept in contact with me long after I left Syracuse. I will remember him for his kindness towards me and my family. I will miss his letters, cards, sense of humor and stories about his cats and walking adventures. Enjoyed our visits in Mattydale too. I am so thankful to have known him all these years. My dear Uncle Mike. Thank you for all the beautiful memories you have left me. Our correspondence over the years has been true gift. I hope you, Dad, Uncle Sam and Uncle Fred get to have a reunion over a plate of venison.
