Christine was my twin who for 73 years had my back. She was an amazing aunt to our children and a source of advice and counsel. Tom and Chris lived with unwavering, loving support for their families. To say Chris will be missed is the greatest of understatements. While there is sadness in her passing there is great joy in having known her. Deb (and Tim)

Tom, I cannot even express how sad I was to hear about Chris. There are so many great memories of great times that we all shared in our younger days. She was such an awesome lady. And you both were such great friends to Bill and me in those days. I am so very sorry for your loss and for the loss of all of those who just loved her.
