I cannot imagine my life not having known Mr. Grant. He was always kind, supportive, and caring, and he approached everything he did with that unfading smile on his face. The best part of knowing him was to see how much he loved his family, Kristie and Mrs. Grant, and I count myself as blessed to have been an "adopted" part of it. "Mom", Kristie, I'm so sorry that he's gone... I hold you in my thoughts and prayers, and I hope that I can share with my family the same great love that "Dad" showed you. He wasn't just a good man; he was a great man. God bless you all. Love, Jay

Sharon, Tom & Kristie, Sheri & I share in your grief for Loren's passing. While this is sad, I know he had comfort from having your continuous love, support, and care during the last several months. While we mourn the passing of this wonderful, kind man, we are also grateful for the chance to get to know him, if even for a few years. He became part of our family as a result of Tom & Kristie's relationship (and marriage), someone we looked forward to seeing during our trips to Syracuse. Please know that while we cannot travel to Syracuse this weekend for memorial services, all of you are in our thoughts and prayers. We mourn Loren's loss, and also celebrate his life, the love he shared with all of you, and the impact he had on all who met and knew him. We love you and will keep all of you in our thoughts and prayers...- Joe & Sheri Ciancaglini

To my brother, my friend I will miss you. May you rest in peace now and no longer feel the pain. The miles between us have been far, but we have been able to talk on the phone. I wish we could have seen each other one more time and talked face to face but that was God's decision. I was glad that you got to see the Korean Memorial before you left us. You have left the brotherhood of war to become an angel and someday we will meet again and have time for those talks. I love you my brother and miss you. There are so many things I want to say but can't put them into words that people will understand. They are things that only a select few would understand. Love Ed.

Dear Aunt Sharon, Kristie and Tom, Uncle Grant was the very best of men, he was a man of laughter and love but also of hardened steel. He was able to overcome so much in his lifetime. He has done so many great things and some we may not even know of. He gave selflessly his time effort and happiness without requesting a single thing in return. He with only a few brief moments gave me much knowledge with which I treasure until this day and beyond. I am deeply saddened by his passing and in no way can possibly hope to express how grateful I am for having spent even a moment with him. Your family was one to be treasured, always kind, always ambitious and always willing. I can only hope to one day be like uncle Grant and maybe someday have as many loving family members such as yourself at my side. You have done a great many things unknowingly for me and I would like to say thank you for that. There are not many people on earth left like Uncle Grant but of this I can assure you, If anyone knew him for even a second, I believe they would try to live a better life just by the example he has set before us. Sharon, Kristie and Tom, I am so sorry to of the passing of your husband and dad. He was such a great and wonderful man and will truly be missed. Do you think God heard all my prayers? Did I not pray hard enough?.....or was it just his time to leave us all because his body could not take it any more. I will continue to pray for him and all of you, that you will all get through this time of sorrow. I am sure he is in heaven right now looking down on all of you with a smile telling you that he is ok and not to worry because he is in good hands! My heart aches for all of you!
