I was so shocked to read of the passing of Rose. I haven't known Rose for a long period of time, as I met her through the Book Club we were in. She was so sweet, funny and full of life. Prayers are with your family . Diane

My whole family called Rose "aunt " Rose. I would see Rose and Aivers every month for over ten years..... at my small business. She took on my family as if it were her own! She even came to my baby shower! One of the most caring, thoughtful and funny 😊 woman I have come to know in my lifetime. She was so full of life and generosity and I know she lived her family very much!! am with such sadness to never see her smiling face again in my presence. I love you Rose.....

Rose was a dear friend and a long time member of our "No Rules" book club. She always was up for a lively discussion, a good laugh, and an excuse to go out for lunch! She will be sorely missed. Sorry I couldn't pay my respects in person; am confined to home myself right now.
