I didn't know Artie from Lyncourt. But I got introduced via baseball. Sure he coached my son or against him. Never seen his smile ever waver. A great guy left to early.

Artie as I knew him since we were little was indeed one of the funniest people I knew. My cousin and bigger than life to me, as I am younger than him. He was always a "big wrestler" to me. I remember sitting in front of the tv in NY watching Saturday morning cartoons with my brother and his sister Liza eating our cereal. Lots of family events but never enough visiting time as life gets in everyone's way. I can't express my shock when I heard, my heart breaks for his family. I know he is with his parents and grand parents also his Uncle Donald but hearts are as always hurting here. Rest in paradise Artie until we meet again. Love Debbie
