Dear cousin Angie & Joe and Mike and Christine, I am very sorry to learn of Joe's passing. As a young girl, I remember visiting at Uncle Tony & Aunt Yolanda's house when you would come for a visit with Michael & Joey. Joey must have been about 4 years old. I remember how entertaining it was to interact with Michael & Joey! I remember how we all laughed because they were so fun as little boys. I'm glad I got to meet Joe again in 2019 at Aunt Sarah's birthday party. He was very kind and easy to talk to about any subject. I pray God will embrace you in His arms as you grieve your loss. Godspeed, Joe. 🙏🕯️🌹

Joe was my first roommate at SUNY Geneseo, in old Alleghany Hall. While we drifted apart over the years, I will always remember his smiling face, his infectious laugh, his kindness, and his wonderful sense of humor. Godspeed, Joe.
