My Aunt Mime was the matriarch of our family, much like Uncle Joe was its patriarch. Aunt Mime is truly at rest, rest that another person would not be strong enough to bear its cost. I could fill this website up with the memories I hold. Memories that can never be taken from me. Oh, Mime? Could you tell my Mom I said "hi"?

Mime, there are no words to express making this easy for anybody. You are, and always have been a major piece in a lot of people's hearts, including mine. The love we have for you, be it family, friends and of course me is simply unmeasurable by any stretch of the imagination. You will be dearly missed as much as we all miss Joe, Steven, Rose & Annette. If I might have left anybody out, I am truly sorry. My eyes are so filled with tears, I can't even see straight. From the bottom of my heart Mime, I love you, I'll miss you and you will never be forgotten. Steve Courtney
