To my loving friend I remember the day I first met you Karen would babysit me and my brothers and you would come over at this age or five six then as we got over we became very good friends the families baptisms parties birthday parties weddings all of it the times we had were unheard of as I speak I Cry as I Cry I cherished our times together my son Johnny used to love when you used to come over to the house play pool with him he just loved it maybe he's waiting for you there too I bet you he is. I can tell you this Ronald Reagan was one of the most down the Earth persons than anybody can ever meet in their life my name is Johnny DeFrancesco and Terry DeFrancesco we were great friends and we will see you on the other side. And I am so glad that you enjoyed your retirement and enjoy your lovely family.
