To Joanne's family, I am so sorry to read of Joanne's passing, but heaven awaits her! We were classmates at STA and friends. Over the years our paths have crossed. Recently we would drive together to our class luncheons always enjoyed our friendship! She was a sweetheart, kind hearted and a beautiful person inside and out. Let the good memories ease your sorrow. What the caterpillar calls the end of the world, the master calls a butterfly.

Joanne was a neighbor of ours for many years. She became a good friend and part of the family. She watched my son grow up and he referred to her as, "Aunt Joanne Next Door ". He's 19 now and still thinks of her that way. She was there when I needed advice, company, or a good laugh. We will miss her terribly. Susan and Matthew Johnson.
