To all our friends/family, We want to express our deepest words of sympathy on the passing of our beloved Ruthie. We have thought about her and all of you so many, many times over the years and how much you are all missed. The camp/lake days were so great and wished they could have gone on for a lot longer. We wish we could be there to share stories and hugs with you; but, I'm not sure it is possible. We will be there in thoughts and prayers and want you to know how much we loved Ruthie and still hold you all deep in our hearts and memories. Carl and Pat Sissenstein

We came to know and love Ruth over many years, and to admire her as a great lady with great spirit... always "up" and made all around feel the same. They just don't make 'em like her anymore. May God grant her eternal peace and joy. Marge & John McNeil
