Pete's loves included hunting, golfing, traveling home to Greece with his family, and his annual Greek village reunions in Jamestown, NY. Upon retirement, Pete continued to help at the diner but loved spending long summers in his beloved mountain village in Tsintzina, Greece.

Peter & Georgia were our neighbors when they lived on Retford Drive. They were wonderful people as we watched our children growing up. I would occasionally see Pete at Diner and talk to him. I will truly miss that. Loving I send my condolences to his entire family and my friend his wife Georgia.
