Annette K. (Keim) Orth

FEB 12, 1925 - MAY 3, 2024

Annette K. (Keim) Orth, 99, passed away peacefully on May 3, 2024 at The Friends of Dorothy House in Syracuse. She was born in Youngstown, Ohio, daughter of the late Carol Dale Keim and Agnes May Breen and graduated from Short High School in Liberty Indiana and attended Indiana University in Bloomington. Annette was primarily a wife, mother and homemaker, but she also worked as a riveter during W.W.II, a nurse's aide, in various factories, on a pear ranch in California and as a proofreader for Carlson Craft in Mankato, MN. She enjoyed Bird Watching and loved traveling in her RV from 1985 - 2015.

She is predeceased by her husband, Ralph Anthony Orth in 1987; her children, Mary Agnes Nelson-Wade, Christine Rosenstein, Jonathan Orth and Erin Marie Orth; her granddaughter, Shannon Orth and siblings, Joan (Keim) Witt and Thomas Keim.

Annette is survived by 8 children, Ralph Anthony Orth, Jr. (Nadine Lucas), Christopher Orth, Annette Milinda (Fred) Asplen, Monica Orth, William Casey Orth, Nickolas Orth (Michael De Salvo), Rosslyn Joan (Joseph) Staudenbauer and Paula Marie (Gregory) Cooney; 22 grandchildren, Annette (Nettie) Basile (Wade), Brendon Nelson-Wade, Marco Rosenstein, Quin Rosenstein, Julie Orth, Thomas Orth, Emily Orth, Joshua Orth, Zachery Orth, M. Renee Orth, Matthew Orth, Nick Orth, Camila Mecher, Xyara Asplen, Dylan Asplen, Sean Asplen, Ana-Brit Asplen, William Orth, Jackie Lee, Alison Staudenbauer, Adam Orth and Cylvia Orth, and 19 great grandchildren.

There will be a Catholic Funeral Mass at St. John the Baptist Church in Mankato, MN on July 13, 2024 at 9:00 am. The interment of her cremated remains will be on Monday July 15th at 10am in Fort Snelling Cemetery in Minneapolis, MN.

Contributions in Annette's name may be made to The Friends of Dorothy House, 212 Wayne St., Syracuse, NY 13203.

I have SO MANY memories of life with your Mom. She was my Godmother, so I have all of those memories of Catechism classes she drove us to, followed by so much fun at your home in Sylmar! Miracle Whip. The bird aviary. Thousands of guppies in your fish tanks. Epic bunkbeds!! Gayle the Quail (several iterations) Going to Van Nuys Drive In in the VW Bus. Then later on - she was with us when Mom passed. She came right away when Dad died. Her roadtrips with Joan when they stopped in NM and stayed over a few days. Then she was BACK ON THE ROAD!!! How many thousands of miles did Annette drive in her lifetime??! Wow! Her faith in G-d was so impressive. Her thoughts on death and heaven bring comfort to my girls and I - especially now. All of you are in our hearts and prayers as you all work through your own grief. The truth is, there is simply NEVER a "good time" to lose your Mom. She will be missed. All our love, Trish, Lauren & Jillien

Roz, we are so sad for your loss, yet know how fortunate you were to have Annette's beautiful soul as a part of your life for so many years. Intelligent, funny, loving, supportive and a witness to so much in her lifetime. We know that she will continue to live within you as the many happy memories you have shared together.
