Jonathan N. Angarano

FEB 10, 1981 - JUN 19, 2024

Jonathan N. Angarano, 43, of Baldwinsville, passed away unexpectedly at his home on June 19, 2024.

Jon was a lifelong resident of Baldwinsville and a graduate of CW Baker High School. Jon was the owner of Trade-Mark Construction and TMC Restoration for over 20 years.

He was an avid boater and enjoyed time on Oneida Lake and the Thousand Islands region.

Jon loved spending time with his family and friends, holding court, making us all laugh and smile.

Jon had a larger-than-life presence, and to know him was to love him. He left a lasting impression on every person he met. He will be missed dearly.

He is predeceased by his sister in-law, Sarah Greenwood-Angarano, father in-law, Rainer Gruening, and both paternal and maternal grandparents.

Jon is survived by his loving wife, Susanne Angarano (Gruening), parents, Nick and Tina; brother, Nicholas; nephew, Cristiano and several aunts, uncles, and cousins, along with countless friends.

Calling hours will be held on Monday, June 24, 2024 from 4-7 pm at THOMAS J. PIRRO JR. FUNERAL HOME, 3401 Vickery Rd, (corner of Buckley Rd.) N. Syracuse, NY. A Funeral Mass in celebration of Jonathan's life will take place at 11:00 am on Tuesday, June 25, 2024 at St. Mary of the Assumption, 47 Syracuse St., Baldwinsville, NY, followed by entombment in Woodlawn Cemetery Mausoleum.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Mercy Flight at <https://www.mercyflightcentral.org/> or Ronald McDonald House at <https://rmhcny.org/>

Susanne and Family, I was stunned and deeply saddened to hear of Jon's passing. Please know my husband and I am thinking and praying for your healing during this difficult time. Meeting Jon over the years at Ashley McGraw events, it was obvious he was a brilliant, loving, and fun person. My latest memory of him was at the 2023 Celebration of Architecture. Jon loved the Italian pasta pie dish. He either knew or became fast friends with the waitstaff to get the table more of this delicious pasta dish, which he then shared with everyone. This just shows how friendly and good hearted he was. We are here for you in whatever capacity you need. huggsssssss

Dear Angarano family, I'm incredibly sorry for loss of such a strong leader and creator. I've have the pleasure of knowing his wife and seeing his work in his own home, which are fantastic examples of the love and care he applied to all aspects of his life. I hope that the memory of his impact can continue on through the lives he touched, and I pray for peace and protection as you celebrate his life.

Tina and Nick—We fondly remember you and your cute boys, Nick and Jon, from our St.Mary's days, as they were classmates of our kids, Joe and Laine, respectively, through high school. Jon, as an adult, shared his talents and time generously. Words seem so insufficient, but please know we are keeping you and your family, Jon's wife, and all his Baker High friends in our hearts and prayers. —Maria and Dave Belcastro
