Nick was one of my best friends through high school as well as his brother Joe. Wonderful family. They don't come any better. Would have stayed closer if I hadn't moved to Florida. God Bless - Chick Melfi

To The Saya Family, My sincere condolences go out to you all with the passing of my friend Nick. When I was a kid I always looked up to him & Joe and Rosie his Mom was a Super friend of mine always. There is probably not a man or woman in the city that knew Nick and didn't like him because he was a super person and had a great personality. he will be missed by everyone in the family and that knew him. Rest in peace Nick as you were one of the real good guys from the Nort side. May God Bless You & your Family.
