I met Annie 50 years ago when I married into the family. She was a beautiful soul and would always light up a room with her vivacious smile. She took an immediate liking to me and as I did with her. After all, we were two Polish girls that married into an Italian family. My sincere condolences to Nick and family and I know she is up there dancing in Heaven now. Rest in Peace, beautiful soul. Nancy (Degilormo, Wieczorek) Albro.

My Aunt Hiya was a beautiful and generous woman. She would remind me that family was most important and displayed it in all her ways. She was a wonderful cook and loved to bake and as long as I can remember the only place I ever wanted to go when visiting Syracuse. I love her and will miss her.

My heartfelt condolences to the entire family for the loss of your beautiful matriarch. What an wonderful example of how a family should be. May Anna rest now in God's arms. I know my father (Dick Filippi) will receive her there and embrace her. He spoke so lovingly of both Anna and Nick. I will always remember her warm, smiling eyes and gracious demeanor. Much love and strength as you grieve your loss but also know that she is looking after each and every one of you. Valerie (Filippi) Cundiff

Dan Ortega has been my best friend for 18 years and no one loved him like his grandma ☐ she was a bright and warm woman and fashionista at heart who bought me my first work cardigan when I couldn't afford it and I'll never forget her easy kindness. Rest easy 🕊️

When my son, Anthony, was dating Karen, Nick and Anna Mae greeted us as friends and even more so as family when our children married. It was always a pleasure and fun to visit them when we headed north to see our children and grandchildren. Always a welcome stop to visit. I thank and love them both and wish I could be there for the celebration of her life a truly lovely lady with a heart of gold that was big enough to include my family too. God bless her always .
