Lucille J. "Lucy" (Capria) Alberici

NOV 7, 1937 - OCT 7, 2024

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing on Monday, October 7th, of our beloved Lucille Alberici, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Lucy is survived by her husband of 63 years, Joseph Alberici; her daughters, Anna Alberici-Clark (Les), Tina Alberici, Lisa Alberici, and son, Joseph Alberici (Suzanne); her grandchildren, Joseph, Jesse, Jonathan, Matthew, Anthony, Kaili, Nathan, Christina, and Nicholas; and her great grandchildren, Miley, J. J., Joseph, Isabella, Michael and Wesley.

The story of Lucy's life is the story of devotion, family, and friendship. Born on November 7, 1937, to the late Harry and Caroline Capria of Liverpool, she was the older sister of Harry Capria, Jr. She graduated from Liverpool High School in 1956 and went on to become a bookkeeper at Lincoln Bank. In 1956, she met her husband, Joe, at a dance for young Italian Immigrants. Together they taught each other Italian and English and went on to get married in 1961.

Lucy's unwavering love for her husband and family was the cornerstone of her existence. She dedicated herself wholeheartedly to nurturing her loved ones, always ready to lend a helping hand. Whether caring for her children or showering her grandchildren with affection, she did so without hesitation or complaint. Her home was more than just a gathering place; it was a sanctuary filled with warmth, laughter, and the delicious aroma of meals prepared with care. Each dish she served was infused with love, and she had an extraordinary gift for making everyone feel welcomed and cherished at her table.

In addition to her nurturing spirit, Lucy was remarkably sentimental. She had a knack for saving anything and everything that touched her heart, from handwritten notes to mementos from family gatherings. These treasures, carefully preserved, tell the story of a life rich with love and connection. Each item held a memory, a moment of joy that she wanted to keep close. Her home was a tapestry of these cherished reminders, reflecting the deep bonds she formed with those she loved.

As we reflect on her life, we are reminded of the countless ways she enriched our family. Her legacy will live on in the many handwritten recipes she lovingly shared, allowing us to recreate her culinary magic in our own kitchens. The blankets she crafted for her children and grandchildren will forever keep them warm, a tangible reminder of her comforting presence. Each treasure she passed down holds a piece of her heart, connecting us to her in ways that words cannot express.

As we navigate this profound loss, we will deeply miss the sound of her laughter, the gentle touch of her hand, and the way she could light up a room with her smile. Though her physical presence may be gone, we find solace in the enduring love she left behind, a love that will forever remain embedded in our hearts. Lucy's spirit will continue to guide us, reminding us to cherish one another and to live each day with kindness and compassion.

We invite all who knew her to join us in celebrating her extraordinary life and the indelible mark she left on each of us. In sharing our stories and memories, we honor her legacy and keep her spirit alive.

Rest in peace, dear Lucy. Your love will continue to illuminate our paths and inspire us every day.

A funeral Mass in celebration of Lucy's life will be held on Friday, October 11, 2024, at 10:00 A.M. at Epiphany Parish (Formerly St. Joseph the Worker Church) 1001 Tulip St., Liverpool. To the Alberici family My father Frank was good friends with Joe, Emidio and Angelo when they started out building apartments. He sold them plumbing and heating supplies. He and my mother attended many weddings and parties throughout the years. One of my fond memories was going to a worksite and eating lunch. The food was delicious and a sheet of plywood was used for the table. A true family business that has grown over the years. God bless Lucy and all the great women that were from the greatest generation. My family's condolences goes out to Lucy's family and friends.

Psalm for the dying.

Relatives and friends,

*I am about to leave: my last breath does not say "goodbye," for my love for you is truly timeless, beyond the touch of boney death.
I leave myself not to the undertaker, for decoration in this house of the dead, but to your memory, with love.*

*I leave my thoughts, my laughter, my dreams to you whom I have treasured beyond gold and precious gems.
I give you what no thief can steal, the memories of our times together:
the tender, love-filled moments,
the successes we have shared,
the hard times that brought us closer together and the roads we have walked side by side.*

*I also leave you a solemn promise that after I am home in the bosom of God,
I will still be present, whenever and wherever you call on me.
My energy will be drawn to you by the magnet of our love.
Whenever you are in need, call me;
I will come to you, with my arms full of wisdom and light
to open up your blocked paths, to untangle your knots
and to be your avenue to God.*

*And all I take with me as I leave is your love and the millions of memories of all that we have shared so I truly enter my new life as a millionaire.
Fear not nor grieve at my departure, you whom I have loved so much,
for my roots and yours are forever intertwined.
- by Edward Hayes, Prayers for a Planetary Pilgrim*
