Dear Ravas family.I'm so sorry to hear about Danny and I hope that his memory keeps you comforted. I first met Danny in the 80's, I believe he was the drummer for Triple X. I thought this kid was wild with long black curly hair and a smile on his face and without a care in the world. Always free spirited. I use to do work for other bands but not with any of the ones Danny was with. Danny was on my top 3 drummers. Rob (Karras) Humeniuk, Joey Fucco and Danny. I used to run into Danny all the time at Albano's warehouse until it burned down. Then I worked with Danny for a while mowing lawns for Wicham and Murphy and then I would see him every now and then. Every time a big show would come to Syracuse I would check to see if Danny was working it. I remember Bob sharing some stories of Danny being on the road with different bands, I thought that it was so cool that Danny was still doing what he loved, being around music. There is many other stories, Danny definitely had lived a full life. He will be missedGeno and Sheila Lent
