Lucy (Borelli) Borel

DEC 13, 1927 - JAN 5, 2025

Lucy (Borelli) Borel, of Syracuse, passed away peacefully at St. Joseph's Hospital with her loving family by her side on Sunday, January 5, 2025. Born in Syracuse to the late Patrick and Anella (Bagnuto) Borelli, Lucy attended North High School and retired after 24 dedicated years from U.S. Air. She was the longest tenured resident at Presidential Plaza, living there beginning in the 1960s.

Along with her parents, she is predeceased by her brother, Anthony Borelli; her sisters, Connie Burns and Joya Tucci.

Lucy is survived by her sons, Nicholas P. and James M. Vecchiarelli; her beloved grandsons, James "J.R." (Taylor) Vecchiarelli, Jr. and Joseph Vecchiarelli; great-grandchildren, Luca, and Remi Vecchiarelli; along with several nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews and cousins.

In keeping with Lucy's wishes, there will be no funeral services.

A special thank you to NY Spine and Wellness for their great care for many years.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to St. Lebre Indian School at www.give.stlebre.org, Saint Joseph's Indian School at saintjosephs@stjo.org, Red Cloud Indian School at <https://mahpiyaluta.org/>, and Oglala Lakota College at <https://www.olc.edu/>.

Barb Defoster Aureli lit a candle in honor of Lucy.

I had the great privilege and pleasure of having Lucy as a friend when we worked together at the airline. I have thought about her often over the years and remember how good she was to me. I am sad to hear about her passing but am so happy that she was my friend. Rest in peace, Dear Lady.

I had the pleasure of knowing Lucy while working with her at USAir....I have thought of her also over the years many times....she could make you laugh or tell you how it was. I was very happy to call her a friend...and how she loved her boys. May she rest in peace. Ellen Sganga Hatch.
