Hey Sissy, I hope your content that Cathy and I arranged your funeral as you requested. We were in disbelief that you suddenly became so ill. I know I promised not to call an ambulance since you said no more hospitals, but, we needed to get you much needed comfort. Thank you for the dance two weeks ago and the laughter we shared. As true a Capricorn, you are mighty stubborn in your ways, but, that is what makes you Lisa. I love you. ❤️

Condolences to the Durham family. I remember your family when they would come to visit grandma Hattie from Syracuse. It was always a fun time. May she rest in peace 🙏

I remember when I was at Grandma's and Lisa just walked in the house and said Hi! We asked her who she came with thinking that Aunt Betty would be walking in too but then Lisa said that she hitchhiked here! We lol and had such a nice weekend with her. She was always smiling and laughing. That's what we loved about her ❤️

Dear Debbie and Cathy....i am so sorry about yet another devastating loss of your sister, Lisa. She lived a life with many ups and downs with twists and turns....but never with regrets. She was happy and always knew she was deeply loved. I so enjoyed talking to her a short time ago when she happened to answer the phone at Debbie's. She was in good spirits, and we shared a laugh or two 😊 She is at peace now and embraced by those who have passed before her. "Rest in peace, Sister. Once you were here... now you are everywherealways in our hearts." ❤️ Fran
