Benny was a great friend for over 25 years. The loving way he cared for his parents John and Carmella is inspirational. I already miss his loud laugh! This video is a fond memory of Benny making a surprise visit to see my family on Christmas Eve .

So sorry for the loss of Benny. Used to see him all the time at either Wegmans or Nichols, but not in a while. He was a great guy, always happy to see him, so cheerful and caring. Condolences to his family, prayers 🙏 for you

Marino 'Marty' Nave lit a candle in honor of Benjamin.

I first met Benny in 1967. 8th. Grade Math at Grant Junior High School. Over the years Benny would call me at night, would talk about the old days and Italian food. I last saw him at the taste of Pompei . I never thought it would be the last time I would see and talk to him. I still have the voice message he left me on the phone that he would be at the Taste of Pompei. Benny, May Perpetual Light Shine Upon your soul, May your parents greet you in paradise and you be at Peace with our Lord. Amen.
