Mary Ann (Barone) Caccamo

JUN 19, 1939 - FEB 28, 2025

With sadness in our hearts, the family of Mary Ann (Barone) Caccamo, announce her passing on February 28, 2025.

Mary Ann loved God through her Catholic faith. As a member of Epiphany Parish in Liverpool, NY, she was active in many capacities that included hosting a weekly Rosary Prayer Vigil in her home, as well as serving the Lord as a Eucharistic Minister.

Born and raised in Struthers, Ohio, Mary Ann was the 13th child in a big Italian family. After growing up on a large family farm and graduating from Struthers High School, Mary Ann moved to Syracuse NY, where 2 of her sisters lived, to seek new opportunities. She began her career in logistics and accounting where she met and married the love of her life, Thomas Caccamo. Tom and Mary Ann made a beautiful home in Liverpool, NY that served as the gathering place for family and friends from near and far. Guests were always welcomed with warmth, comfort and of course a delicious meal. The most famous dinner events were always the annual Feast of the 7 Fishes on Christmas Eve. She would say that her house was plentiful with Gods' Abundance and Love.

Mary Ann had a love for children (nieces, nephews, Godchildren and those that stepped into her life throughout many decades). She loved each child that was in her life as if they were her own.

Mary Ann is survived by Thomas Caccamo, her husband of 43 years, as well as many nieces, nephews, Godchildren, friends and loved ones.

The end of an era: Mary Ann was predeceased by her parents, Ralph and Rose Barone and 12 siblings, Vincent James Barone (Millie), Clara Ferrara (Ralph), Jenny DeLauder (Gordon), Joseph Barone (Penny), Antoinette (Toni) Tallerino (Carmen), Alfred Barone (Ellen), Peter Barone, Elvira (Vera) Conti (Frank), Edward Barone (Gerry), Frank Barone (Sandra). Two siblings died as babies (Vincent and James). Mary Ann is also predeceased by two nephews: James Tallerino and David Barone.

Our Deepest Condolences to Tommy at the loss of his wonderful wife. It was a true pleasure to know Mary Ann, she was an inspiration as to how to live the faith. Jeannie still wears the medal she gave her and I know the prayers that Mary Ann offered helped her heal. God has a special place in Heaven for her, and people of such devote faith have no fear of death as they understand that they are going to their reward of eternal life. May God Bless this wonderful person and console her husband through his grief. R.I.P.
