Marie, my constant supporter and someone that quickly turned into family. it was a pleasure getting to know you and care for you. You pushed to be a better person and you were always my cheerleader through nursing school. Nothing compares to the long talks we had in your apartment about the little things in life and the chocolates you were always trying to get us to eat. We shared so many laughs and stories that I will truly cherish. You were a light for all of us. Saturday morning shower karaoke sessions were something I looked forward to every week. I love you so much Marie. Continue shining down on us, you will be so missed. Until we meet again my sweet guardian angelP.S. I promise I will "keep on flying"
