John, I, & our family send our deepest condolences to the Greenwood family on the passing of Aunt Lil, my Godmother. I just loved being at Aunt Lil's house - the clam bakes, the big yard, playing with my cousins, reading comic books, visiting after going to the farmers market, listening to the stories the elders shared, so many memories! It's the ordinary times I hold dear in my heart. She will not be forgotten! I loved the times around her kitchen table - card games, the unending pot of coffee, grandkids looking at photos, laughing and just visiting with family. She was so down to earth and shared her opinions freely. I loved her laugh and that sparkle in her eyes. She told me to work to keep the family close...family was everything to her. Thank you Aunt Lil for all the sacrifices you made to keep your family healthy and happy. It's the passing of a generation and I give a shout out of love to all my cousins and their families and friends as you gather to celebrate her life. This time of Lent and Easter prepares us to focus on getting our lives in order as we celebrate new life. Now Aunt Lil will be with us in a new way and with those whom she loves who have gone before her - all in God's hands.

We are sending along our sincere condolences to the entire Greenwood family on the recent passing of your mom and our Aunt Lil. The last of the Labulis siblings from Magnolia Street and they each had their memories etched in our childhood hearts as did our Aunt Lil. She was a strong woman in many ways and you always knew where you stood with her because she would flat out tell you and not mix any words while letting you know. She was one of the many "Mom" aunts that all of us boomer cousins had at our family gatherings. You listened to them all – just like you would your own mom. She enjoyed family gatherings, and the more the merrier. From Holy-days and holidays, to camping trips, family picnics, clambakes in her yard, and golf tournaments. She loved her children, grandchildren, nephews, and nieces. She was a woman of service to many and firm in her beliefs of Faith Family & Friends. We will keep all of the Greenwood family members in our thoughts and prayers this Easter season. She will be remembered and loved more than she will be missed. Wishing everyone peace and strength of spirit in the days ahead. Rest in Peace – God Bless.

Taylor and I want to send along our sincere condolences to the entire Greenwood family on the passing of their matriarch - a woman I considered a human dynamo - my Aunt Lil. She was a lovely person and I have so many fond memories of her. She was always welcoming around her kitchen table - lots of laughs with her and Uncle Mo, playing cards, drinking a beer, just visiting, and constantly asking if I was hungry. One of my very favorite memories was gathering at her house to eat the freshest sweet corn and green beans after a weekly summer visit to the farmer's market - usually with my folks as well as my Aunt Mary and Uncle Joe. In those days she always perked her coffee and I would make fun of how strong she drank it. She always said you should be able to stand a spoon up in the brew! Their house reflected Aunt Lil's and Uncle Mo's warm and friendly spirit - it was a real sense of comfort and family - a loving home away from home. They are both etched in my mind and I know I am a better person for having known them. They will always be remembered. Deepest sympathies Joe and Taylor Suflita

"Aunt Lil" was a lifelong friend. We will always remember the card games, hearing stories about her and Uncle Mo with Mom (Dottie) and Dad (Pete) Votra. What a cast of characters. She always had the coffee pot on and food or snacks. Camp was a special place with them there. She will never be forgotten.

I am all too aware that "Aunt" Lil was the last surviving "family" connection to our family. We all seem to have similar memories of her and "Uncle" Moe. Camping, card games, her cooking! I am so grateful that I had the chance to see her last June, and that I got pictures. She will certainly be missed. To the rest of the family, Phillip, Dickey, Bobby, and Betty,,, and your families, my condolences and prayers!

I am so sorry to hear about Aunt Lil. She may not have been a blood relative but all the Greenwood family was family to me. So many memories were made with this family and my heart goes out to all of them. Rest in peace Aunt Lil. ❤️❤️

To Aunt Lil, my Godmother. It was so nice that I got to speak with you recently. I can just see you with mom and dad (John and Wilma) sitting around a campfire while Uncle Mo is doing his little jig to welcome you to the party!

All my family agree with your post. We remember the card games where kids were in one room and adults were in the kitchen playing cards - with them all having very loud voices!
