Edda (Avella) Iacampo

SEP 9, 1942 - APR 24, 2025

Edda (Avella) Iacampo, 82, of Syracuse, passed away peacefully on Thursday, April 24, 2025, at Upstate University Hospital, surrounded by her loving family.

Edda was born in Italy to the late Carmen and Luigia (Capilongo) Avella and immigrated to Syracuse with her little sister, Assunta, in January of 1966. She was a seamstress at Learbury's for 25 years. She also would make and sell cookies for weddings, showers, holidays or any other reason you could think of.

Edda had an extraordinary gift for making people feel at home. Her kitchen was usually filled with the smells of something cooking or baking. She loved nothing more than to invite you over and feed you, every meal and cup of coffee a chance to connect and share stories, laughter and love.

Edda had such a spirit, always reaching out to others, and knew how a simple phone call could brighten someone's day. Her kindness, generosity and spirit was the glue that held everyone together.

Along with her parents, Edda is predeceased by her husband, Michael Angelo Iacampo in 2017; and her siblings Dora (Vincenzo) Mutone, Mario (Antoinetta) Avella, Rosa (Clemente) Caporaso, Giovanna (Nicola) Napoletano, Carmela Santaniello, Maria Avella, and Amedeo Avella.

She is survived by her daughter, Catarina (Michael) Walter; grandson, Michael Jr.; siblings, Assunta (Nino) Moricone, Clara (Antonio) Grasso, brother-in-law Franco Santaniello, brother-in-law Mario Iacampo, sister-in-law Theresa Findley; several nieces, nephews, and cousins; as well as her dog, Buddy.

Calling hours will take place on Thursday, May 1, 2025, from 10:00 - 11:45 A.M. in Our Lady of Pompei/St. Peter Church, 301 Ash St., Syracuse. A funeral Mass in celebration of Edda's life will follow at 12:00 P.M. (noon) in the church.

To the Iacampo family , my wife and I were saddened to hear of Edda's passing . She was a gracious neighbor and brought a big tray of her cookies over when my father in law passed. I will miss saying hi to her while we were both outside in our driveways , and seeing her taking care of her beautiful flowers . Rest in Peace Edda ... your in our prayers , John and Missy Angotti

Dearest Cathy, we send our most profound condolences. Your mom was an absolute gem. My mom considered her like her daughter. Not one day went by that my mom and Edda did not talk to one another. They laughed, comforted, encouraged and shared stories together. My mom misses her so much already. Cathy, keep the beautiful memories of your amazing mother alive, by doing all the things she loved to do. Know that we are always here for you. We love you very much.
