Mason Henry Doran

FEB 19, 1999 - APR 23, 2025

Mason Henry Doran, 26, of Liverpool, NY, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, April 23, 2025.

Born on February 19, 1999, in Virginia Beach, VA., Mason was the son of Colleen Doran and John Doran. He was a caring, sweet, kind and devoted young man who always had his family and friends' best interest at heart. Mason loved his precious dog, Samantha. Poor Sammy Girl passed away a week before Mason. He loved skateboarding and his BMX bike; they were his passion. He was a thrill seeker, the ultimate master at both. Mason had a wonderful smile and an infectious laugh. His laugh made you smile. His older brother Bryan, and his friends were his lifeline. They were so important to him, even though he may not have said it. His mother was his rock for many things in his life. She wanted the very best for Mason and tried hard to make this happen.

Mason is predeceased in death by his Grandfather, Robert Durkin, and his Grandparents, Henry and Ernestine Doran.

He is survived by his loving mother, Colleen Durkin Doran, his father, John Doran, his brother, Bryan, and half-sisters, Gina Doran and Bridget Doran Butcher and his "brother" Ethan, as well as his Grandparents, Margaret and David Butters and many aunts, uncles, cousins and his "crew" of wonderful friends. In addition, Tracy Lloyd, who is a caring, loving, and wonderful person who stepped in when Mason needed her.

Calling hours will be held on Friday, May 2, 2025, from 4 to 6pm at THOMAS J. PIRRO JR. FUNERAL HOME, 3401 Vickery Rd., (corner of Buckley Rd.) N. Syracuse, NY 13212. A funeral mass will take place at 9:30am on Saturday, May 3, 2025, at Pope John XXIII Roman Catholic Church, 8290 Soule Rd, Liverpool, NY 13090.

May you rest in peace, Mason Henry.

Mason Henry, my precious son, I loved you all your days here unconditionally. You might have plucked my nerves on a weekly basis, but It never stopped me from loving you more than anything else in the world, besides your brother Bryan. I am so proud to be your Mother, and I will always be. Maybe God and me are a little bit ad odds over those, but I have to believe that...maybe he just wanted you there with him. I can't imagine God wanting you there, more then I wanted you here with me, but maybe even at such a young age, The Lord thought you were better off there with him. I'm mad, and I'm so sad that you were really taken away from me, but Mason, my sweet baby boy, my life, maybe you were needed elsewhere. My love for you was so unconditional, and although we went through a lot, you weren't meant to be here longer than you were. I carried you for 9 months, and loved you so much with all my heart. I will always love you my boy, and I will see you again...just to hold you and kiss your whole face again. My precious son, I have no answers... but God picked me to be your Mom, and now I know I will yearn for the time I can hold you again. Good night my sweet, precious boy Mason Doran.

Colleen and John, this is Susan (Edwards) Gregory, an F-P classmate of John's. The class of 1980 joins me in this condolence, and these words don't seem enough but know that the emotion and prayers behind them are heart-felt and genuine. We don't have to know Mason personally to know how much love there was for him and our hearts ache for your loss; this human condition transcends that. Sammy was waiting in heaven to welcome him, as well as his grandparents. Continued prayers for you both, his siblings and all that knew and loved him.
