Lisa Oneil lit a candle in honor of Marguerite.

I regret just learning of her passing. She was my next door neighbor as a young child and also like a second mother to me. She gave me my first cup of coffee and she was always a safe place for me even into adulthood. My heart hurts but I am forever grateful to have had her in my life.

To all the loved ones of Marguerite, I will remember Margie as a wonderful woman, gifted, loving and fun. I went to her beauty shop on Salina St. many years ago and knew her well through my late sister-in-law Erna Mercurio. The last time I saw her was at Erna's wake, but wrote to her once when I heard she was at Loretto. I understand through my best CA friend that she had the opportunity of seeing her recently on her trip back to Syracuse. May she have eternal life and finally be without pain and suffering.
