I was saddened to hear of Jim's passing. Jim and I were in the same homeroom for 3 yrs. at Henninger that's when we first met. He was always fun to be around. When i found out he became a syr.firefighter i asked my father in law(Dom Dipaulo) if he knew him, and he said yes fondly. In recent yrs. I'd see Jim at our class reunions, F F credit union clam bakes and at the trackside diner in liverpool. I'll miss seeing him out and about for sure. Please know that you all will be in my thoughts and prayers .Rest in Peace my friend .. John Angotti

Over the years how we became a second family. Yearly reunions in Wildwood Crest, going out for dinners , and our Atlantic City trips.We would sit outside our rooms in the mourning and drink our coffee and later head down to the beach. We will miss him so deeply and our vacations will not be the same. God speed Jim, fly high.
