William G. "Billy" Merrow

AUG 8, 1943 - DEC 30, 2025

William G. "Billy" Merrow, 82, of North Syracuse passed away peacefully on Tuesday, December 30, 2025, at Elderwood at Liverpool. Born in Syracuse, son of the late Francis and Kathleen (Cuddy) Merrow, Billy was employed with Carrier Corporation for over 33 dedicated years. Billy was an avid football fan, especially cheering on Patrick Mahomes and the Syracuse University football and basketball teams. In his younger years, he enjoyed golfing and he currently enjoyed playing cards with his friends at Buckley Square twice a week.

Along with his parents, Billy was predeceased by his "princess," his wife of what would now be 61 years, Patricia A. (Marra) Merrow; his grandson, David A. Merrow; siblings, Edward Merrow, Robert Merrow, and his beloved "kid" sister, Cheryl Abrams; and his Godson, Samuel A. Piazza, Jr.

He is survived by his children, Anthony Merrow, and Gina (Don) Husted, Jr.; grandchildren, Gabrielle (Cameron) Wojcik, Donald Husted III, Dylan Husted, Aylssa (John) Currier, and Christina Merrow; great-grandchildren, Brycen Cuny, and Tyler Wojcik; brother-in-law, David Abrams; along with several nieces, nephews, and cousins; as well as close friends, Joe and Joan Tumolo in Florida, and Joe and Sharon Stark, also of Florida, who would always open their homes to him when he would visit Florida over the years. Billy would also always make a Valentine's Day stop to have dinner with his granddaughter, Gabrielle, during her college years when he traveled to Florida.

The Merrow family would like to thank Dr. Alex Brown and the staff at the Syracuse VA Medical Center, and Elderwood at Liverpool, especially the 2nd floor management and staff for their patience, kindness, empathy, and support during a difficult time. Also, a special thank you to Billy's good friend, Paul Jones, who was not only a good friend, but took wonderful care of Billy.

He is now having a card game with all his favorites, Patti, Sharon, Nate, Barbara, Helen, and Henry.
