“ Beth, Matt, and grandchildren, my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Aunt Jo is a beautiful lady and caring human being. I feel incredibly lucky to have her as an Aunt and Godmother. Her smiles lit up a room and her giggles were infectious. I loved her and have so many wonderful memories of her and Uncle Bob as a child. As a young adult, I began to comprehend their special and joyous relationship. It was so much fun to watch them laugh together and I would pray that I could find my own relationship with the same laughter and daily love I saw them share. They were my inspiration and I like to think they were my good luck charm because I found it in my marriage. I am terribly sorry we lost her so soon. All of her immediate family are in my thoughts for losing such an important cog in the family.

Beth, you especially are in my thoughts and heart. She loved you dearly and no matter your age, you will always be her little girl. Hug and kiss. Love, Janet Powell
